5 REASONS TO USE A CHARMOISE RAM

REASON 1

They have excellent conformation and carcass traits making them ideal for use as a terminal sire. Their light bone structure means they kill out well.

REASON 2

They are hardy and long lived. They'll survive up on the hill and will keep in condition on poor pasture, living a long age so more lambs per tup bought.

REASON 3

They have a narrow and small head which means they are easier lambing than many other terminal sire breeds. Lambs just pop out making them ideal for outdoor lambing.

REASON 4

Their lambs are vigorous and get up to suckle straight away. They don't give up trying to feed off a stubborn ewe which makes them ideal to use on ewe lambs.

REASON 5

They are excellent grass converters and lambs often move on to grass at a young age putting less strain on the ewe. Again making them excellent for use on ewe lambs but also on older ewes.
